

SUBW

Sydney University Bushwalkers Pub Crawl 2006

It's on! This year the Sydney University Bushwalkers Pub Crawl will kick off at The Gearin's, starting and ending at Katoomba. We will catch the train between pubs in the mountains each hour. There will be ONE CHALLENGE at each pub along the way.

ID: The bars need some way to distinguish pub crawl participants from regular patrons so they know who gets the specials...

WEAR Volleys and your SUBW Tee's. AND wear one accessory from your adventures in the wilderness - it could be a lucky hat, helmet or perhaps your favourite handline! So we know who is and isn't on the Crawl... At the end all people's names that made it to the end are collected in a hat which will be drawn for the midnight prize. The fun begins!

Saturday 16th September

The Route:

1. START at The Gearin's, Katoomba, for dinner + instruction on navigation and rules of the game.

3:10pm Train from Central - Katoomba @ 5.21pm. (weekend timetables).

MIDNIGHT: Announcement of prize draw winners! On the verandah.

Specials: Wherever possible, I will try to negotiate specials in advance with the bartenders/managers.

This is the ideal time to do a dry run of the crawl and prove out the route!

The Challenges:

Spondonicle Schooner Skull

Various challengers.

Many schooners of beer.

Fastest to 'down' the beverage using only a pair of Spondonicles.

Marshmellow mouth

Challengers.

Marshmallows.

Put the marshmallows in mouth one at a time.

Attempt to say "press on regardless" each time.

Press on regardless. I'll decide who wins. hehe.

True Blue Bushwalker

Everyone will be in pairs.

Middle legs (!) tied together. 3-legged leg of the crawl. (no crawling)

Start race from when train doors open at next destination.

First three legs to reach the next pub win a prize.

Kowmung Karaoke

Any subwarian who gets up on the mike and sings will get a prize, the best singer per pub. Attempt to impress anytime during the night!

SUBW Songbooks will be on hand, in pocket. If there are multiple contenders, winner is chosen by the Honorary Junior Vice-President.

Other random games:

Master of the Thumb

This game is played in conjunction with any other game during the course of the evening. The game starts by picking the person who will be first master of the thumb. While sitting around a big table having a good time, the master of the thumb can, at any times/he chooses, non-chalantly place her thumb on the edge of the table. After she has started this, anyone who notices must follow example. The last person to place his/her thumb on the table loses and has to drink, but they do become the new master of the thumb.

Name Game

Lou Lou suggested this easy fun one. This social event encourages people to get to know one another. However, people tend to forget peoples names when there is a large group, not to mention the effect of alcohol on memory.

So the game is: if you cannot guess someone's name in three attempts, you have to buy them a drink. Subwarians can challenge each other. No asking other people, no faking memory loss.

More to come

Special acts will score prizes. Use your imagination.

What to bring:

Piece of rope ≤1m.

Spondonicles.

Train travel lollies.

Accommodation Options:

[Best] Central Blue Mountains Backpackers - $20 flat rate - will give us rooms to ourselves without other (non-smelly-bushwalker) patrons.

Gearins Hotel - $30 pp

Katoomba Mountain Lodge - $23 flat rate Saturday nights, nice dorms.

Katoomba YHA - booked out for Christian convention. (Bring a bible?)
Camping.

Stay out till first train. Earliest train from Katoomba on weekends is the 4:25am to Central by 6:30am.
